Climate Change: One Clear Proof;
One Metric for Success.

A talk by John Englander. Combining personal experiences as a noted ocean explorer with expeditions in Antarctica, Greenland, and the High Arctic with the latest research, John’s mission is to be a clear, objective voice on climate change. In other words—no scientific jargon, no political advocacy—he just explains the scientific facts and potential impacts in plain English. Free. Open to everyone.

Parent’s Night Out on Saturday, November 13. Drop the kids off from 6 to 10 pm for supervised fun time! Activities, movies, pizza and drinks will be available for children 3 to 10 years old. $30 per child with $5 more for each additional sibling.

Terrific Tuesdays Fall Classes
November 9 & 16

Classes: 6:45 pm
What’s Your Spiritual Type?

The Reverend Harris Riordan
Are introverts drawn to one kind of spirituality and extroverts another? Yes. Do thinkers and feelers approach religious questions in different ways? Yes. Why is it that yoga takes your friend to places of deep calm and insight and feels like time at the gym to you, while sitting meditation soothes and nourishes you, but drives your friend to distraction? Just as we each have different styles of learning, we have different ways of being spiritual.

In the first session we will learn about the MBTI (the Meyers Briggs Type Inventory), and take a self-scoring short version of the inventory. In the second session we will explore how these 16 different types engage the search for truth.

The Song in Your Heart Amy Carol Webb
Everybody’s got a song in their heart! Want to discover yours? In this workshop we’ll explore what it is you want to say – especially about your Unitarian Universalist experience. Musical ability welcome but not necessary for you ARE the music we’ll make together, whether you fancy yourself a Beethoven or a Beatle! Come find that place Rumi speaks of in music that opens “the window in the center of your chest to let the spirits fly in and out.” $10 for each series of classes

5:00 - 6:15 pm: A simple dinner (hotdogs and burgers on the grill) will be available for $6 (adults) and $2 (children)

6:15—6:45 pm: Gadding About/Meditation
Childcare at no cost from 6:00—8:00 pm with pre-registration.

Register on our website: www.uufbr.org or call the office (561-482-2001).

Upcoming Movies at UUFBR:

Saturday, Nov. 13: Sunflower Share and Learn Pizza and Film Night ~ "Unconditional Parenting" Moving from Rewards and Punishments to Love and Reason, a talk by Alfie Kohn Share & Learn Pizza and Film Night is a night out at Sunflower for the whole family! Childcare and dinner is offered for the kids. While they play, the parents share a much quieter dinner together then view and discuss a hot-topic film relevant to everyone who cares about children. Dinner at 5:00 pm. Film at 5:30 pm sharp. Discussion will follow the film. $10/person suggested donation for pizza dinner and church use. Limited childcare available for a fee. Please call 561-482-3412 to reserve.

Reel Art and Reel Politique will resume in January, 2011.

Religious Education needs volunteers! Please signup in the foyer if you can help in a Children’s Chapel, lead a song, or watch the kids on the playground. Your help would be greatly appreciated.

Share the Plate Half of each Sunday’s offering is given to groups and organizations that create peace and strengthen the Boca Raton community. We are currently sharing our Plate with Sunflower Creative Arts, to support their Roots and Shoots Program, which brings together children and teens in the community to plan and implement local community service projects. (www.Sunflowercreativearts.com)

Sunday Coffee: Volunteers with names beginning with K through O are requested to bring cookies or snacks to the kitchen for this Sunday’s Coffee Hour.

The Haitian First Baptist Church of Delray Beach, and its Pastor Dieufaite Guerrier, invite members of UUFBR to join them for a Thanksgiving Service and meal following the service on Sunday, November 21st at 10:30 a.m. They are grateful that UUFBR has not forgotten Haiti.

Anyone with a particular interest in Haitian culture is encouraged to attend, bringing an open mind and heart to the possibilities of developing a friendship between our church organizations. Please also bring a Thanksgiving dish to share.

For more information and directions, contact Annette Scalzo, a friend of UUFBR and Director of The Children’s Project for Haiti, recent Share the Plate recipient.

Get to know your fellow UUs at Circle Dinners, (next one is Nov. 19) The dinners are small (6—12 people) organized pot-luck meals in each others homes. Contact Barbara Jensen for more information. Sign-up sheets are in Osias Hall on the kiosk.

Membership: To explore becoming a member or supporting friend of UUFBR, speak to any board member on Sunday mornings. Membership is open to all who are in sympathy with our free faith and are ready to make an investment of time and energy, and a financial commitment towards the support of the fellowship.

Sunday Morning Choir

Our choir is open to all members and friends. Rehearsals are Thursday evenings at 7:30 pm. The choir helps lead Sunday morning worship twice each month. A Pick-Up Choir will be starting on Sunday mornings at 9 am for those too busy to make it to regular rehearsals— watch the calendar for pick-up choir dates.
