The UUFBR Goods and Services Auction begins

- 9:00 am: Forum
- 10:30 am: Service ~ Evolution Sunday. On this anniversary of Darwin's birth, we will look at what it means to say "The quest for truth is our sacrament." The Reverend Harris Riordan preaching
- Children's Chapel and R E Social Justice Project
- 11:30 am: R E Council Meeting (Smith)
- 12:00 noon: Endowment Committee Meeting (Hartley)

Save the Date

- The Annual UUFBR Auction begins February 12. This is our biggest fundraiser of the year, offering dinners in members homes, parties, services, and a wide range of other items. It continues for four weeks—check it out. You're sure to find something wonderful there, and proceeds from the Auction support UUFBR's Operating Budget.
- The Book Club: For the next discussion on February 15, read "Major Pettigrew's Last Stand."
- Reel Art, February 11, 7:00 pm. Bertolucci's provocative 1970 film "The Conformist", starring Jean-Louis Trintignant, will be the film for screening and discussion this evening. Everyone welcome. A $5 donation is suggested to help defray costs.
- WomenSpirit. Monday, Feb. 13, 7:30 pm. Hartley Room. Risa Kiam will led us in a discussion of "Women of the Old Testament and what we might learn from them." All UU women and friends welcome.
- Wednesday, Feb. 15, 6:30 pm: Evening Connections. (Rockberger Hall) A light pot-luck meal and good conversation. Please bring a cold or room-temperature dish to share. Everyone welcome.
- Garyoke Night—Saturday, February 18, 7:30 pm. Nope.. not a typo! Our own fun-loving Gary and Pam Toll are planning a G(k)araoke Night! Join us and share in the fun—friends are welcome too! There'll be desserts and coffee and you can buy (if you need some dutch courage to participate) a beer or glass of wine. We're a little late for Valentine's Day, but smoochy love songs may be heard. And if you don't want to sing alone, you can sing along.

Tickets: $10 at the door

Proceeds benefit the fellowship's operating budget
