WE COVENANT TO AFFIRM AND PROMOTE

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregation
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregation and in society at large
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all

OCTOBER 16 FLEA MARKET

Time to go through the closets and get your donations together! Start saving your grocery bags for the sale day, and check your calendar to see when you can help. Volunteers are needed for the week of Monday, October 11 through the big day on October 16.

Our big Fundraiser this year—we need your help! Contact Barbara Jensen for more information.

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

Sunflower Share and Learn Parent Film Night ~ Saturday Sept. 18, 5:30 pm: “Consuming Kids” - the commercialization of Childhood. Advance reservation necessary (482-3412), childcare for the first 25 children at $10 per child. Pizza dinner. While the children play, adults will view and discuss the film together. Adults are asked to contribute for the pizza dinner and make a suggested donation of $5 for building use.

Reel Politique ~ Sept. 25, 7:00 pm in the Sanctuary “The Corporation”, with special guest speaker, Professor John Cipolla of Lynn University. Suggested donation—$5.

ENDOWMENT COMMITTEE GRANTS

Grant requests will be considered at the Endowment Committee meeting on October 17. Grants are made for long-term development funds and special projects for any purpose “which shall further the cause and principles of Unitarian Universalism.” Forms are available in the UUFBR office ~ email uufbr@bellsouth.net.

RE will be hosting a Salad Sunday lunch at UUFBR on Sunday, September 19th directly after services and before the Town Hall meeting. For a suggested donation of $8 to the fellowship you can enjoy a wonderful lunch from our salad bar which will include a selection of fixings, both meat and vegetarian, along with prepared salads.

UUFBR will host Family Promise September 26—October 3. UUFBR is a part of a network of faith communities who open their doors to families in need. Families receive hospitality at each congregation for one week at a time, with each family sleeping in its own private area of the facilities. Families are provided with meals, and each Sunday are moved to the next congregation in rotation.

Volunteers are needed for this hosting week—please sign up in Osias Hall.

And a FP Coordinator is needed! Someone to help plan dinner menus for the week, grocery shop, to let volunteers in to the building, etc. Please contact Melissa Livingston at livingstonmail@bellsouth.net or 561-901-5888 if you can help.

SUNDAY COFFEE: Next Week people with last names beginning K through O are asked to provide cookies or snacks for coffee hour

We share our collection plate with organizations and causes that work toward peace and justice issues in our community and the world. This week's plate is shared with The Children's Project for Haiti, specifically to support a kindergarten through eighth grade school in Cite Soleil, founded in 1988. [Ecole Mixte Aide Aux Enfants De La Cite Soleil.] The Project's Director is Annette Scalzo, a friend of UUFBR. Website: <http://childrensprojectforhaiti.org/index.html>

Community Food Pantry

Collections: Please bring in non-perishable food items (no glass containers) for Boca Helping Hands and Similac, Ready to Feed with Iron for Florence Fuller Child Development Centers.

SAVE THE DATES:

Town Meeting September 19, after the service. Like the rest of America, UUFBR is feeling the effects of a troubled economy. Come and hear the steps we have taken to help us through these difficult times, and share your thoughts on moving forward.
November 6 ~ Stringfest Sylvia Parker Memorial Concert Performances of classical and popular music—tickets on sale soon.
