A WELCOMING CONGREGATION

VOLUME 44 ISSUE 1

JANUARY 7, 2010

A Poem for the New Year

The holiday frenzies subsided
And New Year resolutions decided
Each fresh January
It's more than a bit scary
How future and past are collided

In this moment we call "here and now"
Which sneaks up again on us somehow
Though it's no big surprise
How one year's born as one flies
Just after it takes one last bow

Whether worthy of jeers or ovation
Another year reaches gestation
Time gives birth to itself
And lets out a yelp
As the earth carries on its rotation

Of a world braver, newer than Huxley
Could e'er have imagined it thusly
And long since Orwell's '84
Ducked out the back door
We are called to rise all the more justly

Connected like never before
But still grasping and searching for more
For more joy and more peace
More calm, more release
More hearts disinclined to keep score

Or in fact none can lose, none can win
In this search for a truth found within
Truth we find step by step
When we awake and accept
All we've done and have seen and have been

As by faith we reach toward who we'll be
In a tomorrow we cannot yet see
Living just who we are
Under this one day's star
In the courage to live and think free

For free-thinking is what brought us here
On this new decade's cusp, this new year
Now drawing upon us
Brimming over with promise
If we can learn to be now and be here.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

R E BOWLING PARTY,
JANUARY 10, NOON
AT STRIKES (formerly Don Carter's Lanes).
Bowling, pizza, drinks,
and loads of fun! Save the date and plan to be there!

EMPTY BOWLS

Coming soon – our annual Empty Bowls luncheon! January 31, 2010, bring your delicious soup, your generous monetary donations and your hearty appetite. We will sell you beautiful hand painted glass bowls decorated by our children, and you can fill them as many times as you want with the soups provided by our congregants. Proceeds of this all-you-can-eat luncheon will be shared between the Cooperative Feeding Program and Boca Helping Hands.

A sign-up sheet will be posted in Osias Hall starting January 3, or you can email Judy Keiser to volunteer to provide soup, bread, butter, and/or help during the service January 31. Bowls will be painted January 24 – any adult wishing to paint a bowl is also welcome!

Blankets Needed for Homeless Families

With the current cold spell that we have experienced, we need to be prepared for the 14 members of four homeless families that will be housed and fed at UUFBR the week of January 24. We need twin size washable blankets that will be used here during that week if the weather should again dip in the “chilly zone.” Please bring them into the office and attach your name so we know who to thank.

Signups are now being taken for much needed volunteers. The board for signups will be in Osias Hall or you can email k4ever39@aol.com or livingstonmail@bellsouth.net indicating your interest. Volunteers are needed for setup and teardown on the mornings of Jan. 24 and 31st, food preparers and overnight hosts for each night of the week and laundry helpers the week of the 31st. Because we expect several toddlers and preschoolers, a child care helper would be ideal each evening as well.

Inquires have come to UUFBR Family Promise coordinators asking how people can help if they can't be on hand to help directly with the families. In order to keep the hosting cost down, donations of specific food and paper goods is an excellent way for other people to help. Please deposit items on this list in the Family Promise box in Osias. If something needs to be refrigerated, please take it to the office.

- Juice Boxes,
- Coffee (regular and decaf),
- Beverages: (large sizes if possible)
apple and orange juice, ice tea
- Cereals (for all ages)
- Granola bars
- Small pop-top tuna and chicken cans
- Jar of peanut butter and jelly
- Snack-pack sizes puddings and Jell-O
- Cookies
- Paper goods, heavy gauge Dixie-type:
  - Dinner and cake plates – 150 each
  - Bowls – 100
  - Napkins

The collections for the holiday services at UUFBR, totaling $667.00, were designated for Family Promise to help cover hosting expenses.

Contributions for Family Promise are always welcome. Make out your tax-deductible check to UUFBR designated for Family Promise.

UUFBR'S FIRST ANNUAL HOMECOMING WEEKEND

March 13 & 14, 2010

A special weekend at UUFBR. Put it on your calendar now to be sure you don't miss the festivities and the opportunity to see old friends. We are making a list of people to invite. Are you still in touch with members who have moved away, or friends locally who haven't attended in a while? Please send the office any contact information you may have for them so we can include everyone when we send out invitations (soon). Help us create a history wall—bring your memories, pictures, etc. You can email pictures, videos, greetings, etc to uuufbr@bellsouth.net, or bring them in on Sunday mornings.

On Sunday, March 14 there will be a special Sunday morning service by the Reverend Dan Hotchkiss, and on Saturday night, March 13, our Annual Sylvia Parker Memorial Concert with brilliant young pianist, Pablo Rossi. Tickets will be available for this performance on Sunday mornings—see Ralph Savini in Osias Hall.

WOMANSPIRIT

WomanSpirit -- Monday, January 11, 7:30 pm. Intern Minister Amy Carol Webb presents: "Nympha's Lament." All women members and friends are invited to this gathering and intriguing discussion. NOTE: We will meet in the Smith Room due to preparations for the Flea Market.

AUCTION

Starting Sunday, January 24th for 5 consecutive Sundays.

Watch for a list of the wonderful events, services and goods up for auction this year. And, meanwhile, enjoy the offerings at the flea market on January 16.

ENDOWMENT GRANT REQUESTS

The UUFBR Endowment Committee will again consider grant requests at its February 21, 2010 meeting. Grant requests are only accepted three times per fiscal year: June, October and February. This will be the last grant consideration by the Endowment Committee for the 2009-2010 Fiscal Year. February 2010 grant requests must be received by the committee by Sunday, February 14. Grant request forms are available in the UUFBR Office.

Grants are made for long-term development funds and special projects for any purpose which "shall further the cause and principles of the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Boca Raton or Unitarian Universalism", according to the Endowment Committee Bylaws.

REEL ADVENTURES JANUARY 9TH FILM

Filmed with incredible sensitivity, Hiroshi Teshigahara's "Woman in the Dunes" makes us reconsider who we are and why we pursue what we do.

"Reel Adventures" is an evening dedicated to viewing and discussing great films.

Our goal is to present films that both explore the media as an art form and stimulate discussion of provocative social content.

We meet at 7:00 PM sharp at the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Boca Raton. The film will be shown in the Rockberger Room.

We look forward to a stimulating discussion and hope you will be able to join us.

Martin Lipschultz and Susan Caruso

REEL POLITIQUE JANUARY 16TH FILM

Join us as we view and discuss Robert Greenwald's 2009 film, "Rethink Afghanistan." This film addresses many questions: Are we doing more harm than good? Will this military action destabilize nuclear Pakistan? What is the "mission?" Can we succeed? How would we measure "success?" See interviews with Afghans, experts, scholars, politicians and veterans.

"Reel Politique" is a new film series that addresses the need to understand our political world. By showing and discussing relevant films we will explore ideas such as those recently presented in "Sicko (health care)," "The Age of Stupid" (climate change), and "Rethink Afghanistan." Feel free to email titles of films you think relevant.

This series is in addition to our regularly scheduled 2nd Saturday "Reel Adventures" series (films that explore the media as an art form and stimulate discussion of provocative social content).

We meet at 7:00 PM sharp at the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Boca Raton. The film will be shown in the Rockberger Room.

We look forward to seeing you.

FLEA MARKET

It is time for all your clothes, linens, unused workable electronics, books, CDs, DVDs, VHS tapes, cassette tapes, TVs, radios, books, kitchen appliances, flatware, dinnerware, cups, glasses, decorative accessories, children's toys, re-gifting items, and whatever else you have or can think of!

- We begin accepting all items on Sunday, January 10, 2010. You can bring "stuff" in all week until Friday, January 15.
- Saturday, January 16, 2010 we open our doors to the public at 8:00 a.m.
- We need shopping bags, cartons, and paper for wrapping.
- We will accept small furniture only.
- On Sunday, January 10, there will be sign-up sheets in Osias Hall. We hope to have as many volunteers as we did last year to make this a big success.

UUA TRUSTEE TIDBITS

Joan Lund,

After the usual hectic holidays it is time to breathe a sigh of “newness” and hope your congregation will experience and blessed and productive 2010. This will be the second column devoted to the thoughts and words of Rev. Peter Morales, UUA President as expressed at the October Board of Trustees (BOT) meeting. Rev. Morales believes Unitarian Universalism should be far more than “the tiny, fringe religion it is today”. Last month I wrote about growth and what must be done to accomplish this imperative.

Rev. Morales is passionate about social action and public witness efforts. He knows we have always been a faith who believes that true spirituality is fruitful in our acts of compassion and action to combat oppression and injustice. Although our prideful history indicates our being leaders in the struggle against slavery, rights for women, and the civil rights movement today we need to confront the great moral issues of our time: racism, human rights, immigration, economic justice, and preservation of life on our planet. In addition it is imperative that the forces of ignorance and fear that give rise to “militarism, nativism, and fundamentalism” be faced and resisted. Rev. Morales knows the foundation of “public exposure” built by Rev. Bill Sinkford is a foundation on which we must build.

Rev. Morales stated we must be relentless, passionate, and articulate as spokespeople for our religious values. This will include leading efforts to help our congregations be moral beacons in our communities. Congregants know what the pressing issues are in their communities. Therefore, there will be a reorganization of staff services to increase our UUA’s “effectiveness in harnessing the compassion and commitment already present in our congregations”. Our UUA will commit to the Green Sanctuary program, whose “administration it has just undertaken, and in other initiatives to be developed in consultation and cooperation with UU Ministry for Earth”.

In order to create many more opportunities to put our faith into action Rev. Morales’ administration will build on our UUA’s historic continuing opportunity for partnership with the UU Service Committee. This new partnership has already responded together to the Gulf Coast disasters, in Asia, and during the genocide in Darfur. Rev. Morales believes there is much more we can do together.

I wish your congregation good health and good relationships in 2010. Please know I am available for conversation, and/or speaking at a Sunday service. I am usually a phone call (813-931-9727) or email (jlund@uaa.org) away. Happy New Year one and all.
