From the Minister

Greetings, beloveds,

It's been a busy summer, hasn't it? I am currently writing to you from SUUSI, where I represented our fellowship in July.

Reverend Edith A. Love

We have finalized our mission and vision statements, bringing them up for a vote in just five short weeks. Are you familiar with them? If you have any questions, I will be available to speak with you anytime, just reach out to schedule a meeting, OR, the Mission and Vision leaders will have time set aside from 12:30 to 1 on Sundays in July and August, stay tuned for more information on those in the eBlast.

Hard to believe schools are already starting up again, isn't it?

I hope you have a peaceful and easy August!

Reverend Edith

Have you heard about the new project that we share with the Unitarian Universalist Congregation in Fort Lauderdale, the First Unitarian Universalist Congregation of the Palm Beaches? We are launching a film and discussion series, I'm so excited about it, I can't wait to tell you!

The film is called Race: The Power of an Illusion, I first watched it several years ago, and it helped me to understand how our country came to be the way that it is now. The film lays the foundation to understand race and racism in a comprehensive way, which isn't what I was taught in my family of origin, or in school. I highly recommend this film and discussion series. We will be showing the film online and at UUFBR in person, simultaneously, and then talking about what we are learning. The first three sessions are one hour of film, followed by one hour of conversation, and the final session is going to be mostly Q&A.

I truly hope you can join us for any or all of it. Here is a link to register:

Love, Reverend Edith

Reverend Edith will be leading worship on August 3rd, 17th, and 31st this month.

As always, she is available to meet in person, on the phone, or on zoom whenever you would like to talk. Her email is minister@uufbr.org.

August Worship Service Schedule

Sundays at 10:30 am

August 3 - Is There Really A Human Race? with Rev. Edith A. Love

Launching our film discussion series, Race, The Power of An Illusion, we will explore a little bit about how we categorize ourselves as humans, and what we might consider if we wanted to choose differently.

August 10- The Power of a Word” Sermon of the Month presented by Rev. Tania Marquez, UUA Congregational Life Staff, Pacific Western Region.

In this message, Rev. Tania explores the power of words to help make visible the invisible. In this message, she explores the adversities of poverty in a society that has taught us to fear it and the power we have to change it once we are able to identify how it operates.

August 17- The Lenses We Use, with Rev. Edith A. Love and Paige Shortsleeves from P.E.A.C.E.

Please join Reverend Edith and Paige Shortsleeves from P.E.A.C.E. as we explore how listening to others’ stories might help us to understand them better, and we might even learn something about ourselves.

August 24- Courage To Change The Things We Can, with Rev. Jo Green

In these times that we are living in, it is difficult to sometimes feel we are not alone. To take care of ourselves can be difficult sometimes, can be non-existent sometimes, can be invisible sometimes. Let us look at how we can care for ourselves and realize what it is we have control over. There is much more than we think. This morning let’s look at what courageous elements we have that we already possess and how we can use that courage to help our world.

August 31- “Navigating Towards the Vision” with Rev. Edith A. Love

We have chosen a vision statement, a grand ideal of where we want to be in five to ten years. Our mission statement is the how, the ‘marching orders,’ to help us achieve the vision. Next up, what concrete actions shall we take to get there from here?

LIVING OUR VALUES: MISSION AND VISION STATEMENTS FOR UUFBR

By Judy Keiser

WHO ARE WE?

Members of our community have been working hard to bring a clear sense of purpose to our activities within and outside our Fellowship. Why do we exist as a fellowship? What is our vision of the world we want to help create? What is YOUR version of the UUFBR elevator speech?

The existing statement of purpose in our Bylaws has not been examined in a long time, and the world has changed greatly in that time – as have we.

In early 2023, your trustees began an initiative to discern a mission and vision that reflect our current priorities and values. That process culminates this September 7 in a congregational meeting to adopt a Mission Statement and a Vision Statement to guide our actions into the future as a community of faith.

HOW DID WE GET HERE?

March 2023: Claire Smith takes the lead on this project, following the model set forth in Holy Conversations by Gil Rendle. She and Judy Keiser review the model and adapt it for our purposes, and start involving others in the process.

January 2024: The initial meetings of the Mission and Vision Team are held. Volunteers include Claire Smith, Ron, Roth, Rona Solomon, Rajeev Arora, Sharon Drew, Patricia Rogers, Rick Troiano, Betty Tilton, Diane Garland, and others. The Team develops a group covenant, a schedule of meeting times, and a plan for the process.

September 2024: After a hiatus due to internal congregational issues, the Team, under Ron Roth's guidance, resumes its process as part of the congregational healing process.

December 2024: The Team expands to include the whole congregation through a survey sent to all members and friends to help develop a shared consensus of our priorities and values as a congregation.

January 2025: Rev Edith Love is hired as our contract minister and contributes to the evolving process.

February 2025: A congregational workshop is held to crystallize our understanding of mission and vision statements, and what concepts, vocabulary and language will best reflect our values.

June 2025:

- The June Unicorn highlights the Mission and Vision process
- Rev Edith presents a sermon on our identity and participates in a final congregational workshop at which consensus is reached on language to present to the congregation for a vote. See below for the Mission and Vision Statements.

July 2025: The Executive Team collaborates with the Mission and Vision Team leaders to plan a congregational meeting to formally adopt these statements and discuss how to embody them in our congregation and our community. Rev Edith holds the first in a series of Special Conversations: Our Mission and Vision: Preparing for the Future held in person after worship.

WHERE ARE WE GOING?

August 2025: Special Conversations: Our Mission and Vision: Preparing for the Future continue:

- August 3 Special Conversation in person after worship
- August 10 Special Conversation on Zoom after worship (stay on worship Zoom for short discussion)
- August 24 Special Conversation in person after worship
- August 24 Special Conversation on Zoom after worship (stay on worship Zoom for short discussion)
- August 31 Special Conversation in person after worship
- Survey about Mission, Vision and Steps to live our values in the world

September 2025: September 7 Special congregational meeting to adopt Mission and Vision Statements.

WHO ARE WE? OUR ANSWER DEPENDS ON YOU!

Come to the Sunday sessions - Fill out the survey - Attend the congregational meeting – BE PART OF THE ANSWER!

MISSION AND VISION STATEMENTS:

Vision

What future do we seek? 🌟 (VISION STATEMENT)

A beloved community welcoming all and promoting truth, spirituality, love, inclusion, compassion, and justice.

Mission

What do we do to create that future? 🎯 (MISSION STATEMENT)

Our mission is to:

- nurture spiritual growth and connection,
- build inclusive community,
- work towards justice and equity,
- heal the world one interaction at a time.

New Seasons, New Sounds

There's something special about August; it feels like standing between seasons, with summer still being with us, but you can sense the energy of fall beginning to stir. For many of us, it also marks the end of slower summer rhythms and the beginning of the preparations for a new program year, back to school, back to meetings.

Music can be a guide through these transitions, especially the way certain songs help us move from one season to the next. This month's services feature music that captures this spirit beautifully. There's real power in singing "We'll Build a Land" when we're contemplating what lies ahead, or feeling the community that flows through "When Our Heart Is in a Holy Place." Both of these hymns will be sung during August services.

This month also brings us the birthdays of some remarkable composers who understood transformation through music. Claude Debussy, born August 22, 1862, revolutionized music by breaking away from rigid traditions and creating impressionistic soundscapes that continue to inspire us today. His insight that "Music is the space between the notes" resonates deeply with this moment. Right now, in these contemplative moments between summer's fullness and fall's arrival, we're living in those sacred spaces he described.

Leon Theremin, born August 15, 1896, was the inventor of the ethereal electronic instrument that you've likely heard in classic science fiction films. His story reminds us that music constantly evolves alongside technology. Just as we've adapted with hybrid services in recent years, music finds ways to grow and transform. And we don't know yet what other innovations might be waiting for us.

As we look ahead to all that fall will bring, August feels like a time to get ready, a chance to reconnect with the songs that ground us and stay open to new ones that might stretch us in good ways. Whether you're coming back from summer adventures, finding your rhythm again, or simply enjoying these quiet late summer moments, I hope this month's music reminds you that change, like the best songs we know, always starts with taking a breath together.

Here's to the music ahead,

Marina Machado

Join us for a four-part viewing and discussion series of Race: The Power of an Illusion, a groundbreaking documentary examining race as a social construct. Sessions take place in person and via Zoom, Saturdays from 1–3 PM: August 3, 17, 31, and September 14. RSVP on Eventbrite

Episode Breakdown:

- August 3 – Episode 1: The Difference Between Us
Investigates modern genetics to challenge the idea that racial difference is rooted in biology.
- August 17 – Episode 2: The Story We Tell
Explores how race was invented, backed by pseudoscience, and woven into America's national identity to justify inequality.
- August 31 – Episode 3: The House We Live In
Reveals how race is embedded in our laws, policies, and institutions, shaping opportunities and life outcomes.
- September 14 – Wrap-Up Discussion
A deeper dialogue on the implications of the film and how we can collectively work toward racial equity.

Whether you're just beginning to explore racial justice or are a longtime advocate, this series provides powerful tools for understanding how race operates in our society and why it matters.

We are taking a strong stand for immigration justice, emphasizing that this is a moral issue rooted in love, dignity, and community. Through partnerships with groups like South Palm Beach County Indivisible and the ACLU of Florida, we're actively opposing harmful immigration policies such as 287(g), protesting local injustices like the GEO Group's detention centers, and supporting initiatives like citizenship drives and Spanish-language Know Your Rights trainings. We're also urging the community to share personal stories, join student advocacy efforts, speak out against internment practices, and participate in pressure campaigns targeting companies profiting from ICE.

warmly,
Jennifer
